

Bio-Data: Sasan Baleghizadeh and Hamidreza Zakervafaei

Sasan Baleghizadeh is Associate Professor of TEFL at Shahid Beheshti University in Tehran, Iran, where he teaches courses in applied linguistics, syllabus design, and materials development. He is interested in investigating the role of interaction in English language teaching and issues related to materials development. His published articles appear in both national and international journals including TESL Reporter, MEXTESOL Journal, ELT Journal, Language Learning Journal, and Issues in Language Teaching.

Hamidreza Zakervafaei is an EFL teacher in Iran. He received his MA degree majoring in TEFL from Shahid Beheshti University (Tehran, Iran) and his BA in English literature from Kharazmi University (Tehran, Iran). His research interests are issues related to materials development, the role of L1 use in L2 teaching, and teacher cognition.