

Biodata: Kho Siaw Hui, Karwan Mustafa Saeed, & Thapanee Khemanuwong

Kho Siaw Hui is an instructional coach (School Improvement Specialist Coach Plus, SISC+) at Kuching District Education Department, Sarawak, Malaysia. She obtained her bachelor's degree in TESL from Universiti Malaya, Malaysia, her master's degree in Education from Open University Malaysia and her PhD in Professional and Teacher Education from Universiti Sains Malaysia. Her research interests span in the areas of instructional coaching, teacher professional development, English language teaching and learning, and reading comprehension.

Karwan Mustafa Saeed earned his B.A. degree in Translation from Koya University in 2008, his master's degree in Applied Linguistics from Universiti Utara Malaysia in 2013, and his Ph.D. in TESOL from Universiti Sains Malaysia in 2018. He is currently a lecturer at the Faculty of Education at Koya University and a visiting lecturer at University of Raparin. His professional interest is in the realm of TESOL Education, teacher professional development, English language teaching, speaking proficiency, reading comprehension ability, and language testing.

Thapanee Khemanuwong (Ph.D.) received a bachelor's degree in English Language Education (2nd class honours) from Chulalongkorn University, Thailand, a master's degree and a Ph.D. in TESOL from Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia. She is currently a lecturer at the Faculty of Liberal Arts, King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang. Her research interests include instructional coaching, English language assessment, reading comprehension ability and TESOL.