

Bio-Data: Carmin C. L. Montante

Carmín C. L. Montante is currently at Universidad Panamericana. She holds a bachelors of art in political science, French, and secondary education with a concentration in language acquisition from Loyola University Chicago and a master's in education from the same university in cultural and educational policy studies with a concentration in comparative and international education.