

Biodata: Verónica Pimienta Rosales & Liliana Maria Villalobos Gonzalez

Verónica Pimienta Rosales holds a BA in TEFL (University of Guadalajara, MX) and a MA in Applied Linguistics (Montclair State University, USA). She worked as English language professor and academic coordinator at UNIVA for eight years. She was also head of the language unit from the International office at the University of Guadalajara (UdeG). Currently, she is a full-time English language professor of the Modern Language Department at the UdeG. Her research interests are pragmatics, discourse analysis and interlanguage.

Liliana Maria Villalobos has been part of the academic staff of the Modern Language Department at the University of Guadalajara for over 20 years and has coordinated many language education programs in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico. Her areas of interest are the Design, Development, and Implementation of EFL Programs in Higher Education, Research in the field of Teaching and Learning of English as a Second Language, and Bakhtin Philosophy, Dialogue, and Dialogism.

