

Biodata: Mayra Castillo Ortiz & Leticia Araceli Salas Serrano

Mayra Castillo Ortiz has a B.A and an M.A. in ELT by the Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla, México. She has been teaching for ten years in different educational levels as well as in private and public schools. She especially likes to teach children and work with female students. She has been a speaker in national and international events. Her research interests include language acquisition and women education and empowerment.

Araceli Salas has a PhD in Language Science and an M.A. in ELT. Dr. Salas is a professor/researcher in the Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla (BUAP), México. She has been a speaker in local and international events and published several academic articles and chapters in the field. Dr. Salas serves as the Editor-in-Chief of Lenguas en Contexto (BUAP) and an Associate Editor of the TESOL and MEXTESOL Journals. She is involved in TESOL and is the current chair of the EFL-IS. Her research interests include teacher-education, ESP, Discourse Analysis and leadership in ELT.