

Biodata: Noor Vatha Nabilla & Ribut Wahyudi

Noor Vatha Nabilla is a Linguistic Postgraduate student of Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia. She graduated from Universitas Islam Negeri Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang, Jawa Timur – Indonesia in 2019. During her undergraduate study, she joined international activities in Indonesia and abroad. She also participated in an international conference at Universitas Sanata Dharma, Yogyakarta and was also a presenter in International Student Forum, a program jointly administered by Faculty of Humanities of her undergraduate university and Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, National University of Singapore.

Ribut Wahyudi (PhD, Victoria University of Wellington) is the Lecturer at Faculty of Humanities, Universitas Islam Negeri Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang, Indonesia. He has published book chapters, among others, with Palgrave Macmillan (2016; 2017), Routledge (2018, with Chusna), Multilingual Matters (2021, in press) and Sunway University Press (2021, in press). He was an invited reviewer for top journals such as Journal of Politeness Research (De Gruyter) and The Alberta Journal of Educational Research (University of Alberta, Canada). In 2020, he was invited by Routledge - New York to review a book proposal in Critical Applied Linguistics studies.