Biodata: Moisés Perales-Escudero

Moisés Perales-Escudero holds a BA in Modern Languages by Universidad Juárez Autónoma de Tabasco, a MA in Applied Linguistics from Iowa State University, and a PhD in English and Education by the University of Michigan. He is a full-time Associate Professor of Language and Education at Universidad de Quintana Roo, Mexico. He is a member of Mexico's National Research System and serves on the editorial and review boards of several journals. He applies discourse analysis to the study of academic literacies in English and Spanish.